

Provisional Programme

9.00 - 9.30 Registration and Networking

9.30 - 9.35

Welcome

Miss Sarah Itam

CEO and Chair of the British Association of Black Surgeons, Consultant Urological Surgeon

9.35 - 10.00

Keynote

Lord Simon Woolley Kt

Principal at Homerton College, Cambridge University

Session 1: Racial Equity in Cancer Diagnosis and Outcomes

Session Chair: Prof Frank Chinegwundoh MBE

Consultant Urological Surgeon and Honorary Visiting Professor in Health Sciences at City University London

10.00 - 10.05

Introduction

Professor Frank Chinegwundoh MBE

10.05 - 10.45

Panel Discussion:
Cancer Awareness and Care
in the Community

Mr Austin Obichere

Consultant General and Colorectal Surgeon

Mr Jonathan Noël

Consultant Urological Surgeon

Ms Georgette Oni

Consultant Plastic and Aesthetic Reconstructive Surgeon

10.45 - 11.00

Interactive Quiz

Ofuchi Egbugi

Core Surgical Trainee

11.00 - 11.05

Sponsor

11.05 - 11.30

Refreshments

Provisional Programme

Continued

Session 2: Racial Equity in Training and Recruitment

Session Chair: Miss Sarah Itam
Consultant Urological Surgeon

11.30 - 11.50 Recruitment

Sheila Cunliffe

Director-level People and OD professional who researches racism in recruitment in the NHS

11.50 - 12.10 Medical Education and Training

Professor Katherine Woolf

Professor of Medical Education Research, UCL Medical School, Leading academic in Differential Attainment

12.10 - 12.35 Organisational Efforts

Joint Committee on Surgical Training (JCST)
TBC

General Medical Council (GMC)
TBC

12.35 - 13.00 My Journey In Surgery

Ms Rantimi Ayodele

Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon, Site Medical Director Princess Royal, Hospital and South Sites Deputy Chief, Medical Officer KCH

13.00 - 13.05 Sponsor

13.05 - 14.00 Lunch, Networking and Sponsors Viewing

Session 3: Emerging Technologies and their potential role in addressing health inequity

Session Chair: Mr Andrew F Alalade
Consultant Neurosurgeon

14.00 - 14.20 The Utility of Proximie to Help Address Health Inequalities

Dr Shannon Shibata-Germanos - Proximie
Head of Global Health, Health Tech Investor

14.20 - 15.00 Panel Debate:
Artificial Intelligence will Tackle Health Inequalities in the NHS

For: Dr Olaolu Olabintan

Advanced Endoscopy Research Fellow, Kings Institute of Therapeutic Endoscopy, KCH

Against: Miss Ope Sogaolu

Colorectal Surgical Registrar at University Hospital Wales, Clinical Research Fellow in Robotic Surgery, Moondance Cancer Initiative

Continued on next page

Provisional Programme

Continued

15.00 - 15.05 Sponsor

15.05 - 15.30 Refreshments

Session 4: Trainee Focus

Session Chair: Ms Louise Alder
Consultant Oncoplastic Breast Surgeon

15.30 - 16.00 Medical Student And Junior Doctors Essay Prize

Achieving equity in AI data models for medical technology of the future

Oral Presentations
Winner and runner-up

16.00 Keynote

Professor Bola Owolabi
GP and Director – National Health Inequalities Improvement Programme

16.30 Closing remarks

Miss Sarah Itam
CEO and Chair of the British Association of Black Surgeons, Consultant Urological Surgeon
